Dick Lugar's service in the U.S. Senate stands as a testament to the value of vision and determination. He is a former mayor, who put Indianapolis on a path of uninterrupted economic growth during a tumultuous time (1968-75) and also served as President of the National League of Cities.

Senator Lugar has a long history of seeking solutions. Sadly and ironically, candidates these days are not rewarded for working towards consensus. Please stand with me to support a public servant who provides effective solutions to the current challenges that threaten American prosperity and national security. Senator Lugar is truly one of the nation's most intelligent and thoughtful leaders.
